3 2 2

Secluded at the back of the development and surrounded by nature, this spacious split level designed townhouse is a lovely place to call home. The living area, lined with polished floorboards features 2 decks, with one leading to the fully fenced courtyard (which has side access) - a lovely secluded and serene retreat.

A large island bench complete with gas cooktop separates the kitchen and living area. Quality appliances including new dishwasher and Bosch oven as well as built-in microwave compliment double sinks, long benchspaces and abundant cupboards. There is also a power room on this level for guest use.

Upstairs the master bedroom is on the first split level and is bathed in natural light and a leafy outlook. There is plenty of space for the clothes here! With both built in robes and
