3  2  4

Tucked behind an electronic gate in the very popular suburb of Stafford Heights, this freshly renovated home, set on 607m<sup>2</sup> would be perfect for the growing family or investor alike.

A welcoming sun-drenched porch greets you as you lead to the front door and enter the bright living room and into the new ultra-modern kitchen. The beautiful long stone benchtop provides for a breakfast bar option and dual sinks help make preparations a breeze. This large room is lined with windows to bring in the brightness and there are so many cupboards, drawers, cooking prep areas and quality appliances that cooking would be a delight.

Easy-care hardwood floors line the home with carpet in the
